

What is the Micah Center?

The Micah Center is a grassroots justice movement of people of faith who are passionate about social justice and who promote education and action related to justice in the Grand Rapids community and throughout West Michigan.

“Speak out for those who cannot speak, for the rights of all the destitute. Speak out, judge righteously, defend the rights of the poor and needy.”

—Proverbs 31:8-9

Great Resources

6:00 p.m.
Third Tuesday of each month

The Micah Center can connect you with excellent resources for high school and adult education or personal study. We can even arrange for expert speakers to come to your Sunday School or evening service. Let us introduce you to our growing library of videos, books, and pamphlets on social justice and community issues.

Finding Justice in the Bible

7:00 p.m.
Third Tuesday of each month

As you gather others to join with you in matters of justice, it can be difficult to explain specifically why justice should be deeply connected to the Christian faith. "Finding Justice in the Bible" is a series of six sessions that focus on the biblical foundations of justice. Bring your community with you or come as an individual.

You can attend any or all of the sessions; there's no need to begin at the beginning. The sessions are held at Hope Reformed Church. Topics covered include:

- What is justice?
- Justice in creation
- Justice and the law
- Justice and the prophets
- Jesus, justice, and the kingdom of God
- Paul, justice, and the church

Advocacy Groups

7:00 p.m.
Third Tuesday of each month

Join one of the Micah Center's seven advocacy groups and help plan social action and advocacy efforts around a specific area of social justice.

- International Justice
- Poverty and Hunger
- Health Care
- Environment
- Restorative Justice
- Money and Democracy
- Finding Justice in the Bible

Advocacy groups meet at Hope Reformed Church on the third Tuesday of each month.
